To benchmark Ondra-Huyett against the best, FMI - a top national consulting firm, surveyed building owners and company presidents. They found Ondra-Huyett rated highest in the category “likelihood to recommend” to associates and ranked 4th highest in the category “performance superior to its competition” in five years of surveys.

Ondra-Huyett is known for quality of workmanship, honesty, ability to meet schedules, maximizing value for their clients and making the construction process a pleasure.

The Ondra-Huyett Organization has been providing construction management and general contracting services to office, industrial, health care, educational and hospitality clients since 1995.

Call to find out how Ondra-Huyett achieves such outstanding results for their clients.
